NEW GENERAL MANAGERS AT HERITAGE GOLF GROUP

SAN DIEGO, CA. - Heritage Golf Group announced today that Bob Holzman has been named General Manager of TPC Prestancia, a Heritage Golf Group property, in Sarasota, Florida. Holzman comes to this position after having served as General Manager at TPC Eagle Trace, a Heritage Golf Group property, in Coral Springs, Florida. Assuming the role of General Manager at TPC Eagle Trace is Bryan Stone, who served as Head Golf Professional at TPC Eagle Trace for the last six years.

As a veteran Club Manager, Holzman's vast experience includes serving as General Manager at both Weston Hills Country Club and at Cobblestone Golf Group, as well as having served as the Chief Operating Officer of Arnold Palmer Golf Management during the time that Arnold Palmer owned the company.

Originally from Charlottesville, Virginia, Stone came to TPC Eagle Trace as Head Golf Professional after having served as Assistant Golf Professional at TPC Potomac in Potomac, Maryland. Prior to that, Stone worked in Outside Guest Services at TPC Sawgrass in Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida. Stone attended the Professional Golf Management Program at Penn State University and has been a Class A PGA Golf Professional since December 2004.

"Our success as a company depends on the talented leadership of our General Managers," said John Hungerford, Executive Vice President of Heritage Golf Group. "We are fortunate to have the experience and expertise that Bob Holzman and Bryan Stone offer and we welcome them both in their new roles. We look forward to the success that both will bring to their new positions."

Opened in 1985, TPC Prestancia features two 18-hole championship golf courses and is a Certified Audubon Cooperative Sanctuary. The Club Course was designed by Robert Von Hagge, with PGA TOUR player Bruce Devlin as consultant. The championship Stadium Course was designed by Florida's own Ron Garl, with PGA TOUR player Mike Souchack as consultant.

TPC Eagle Trace, opened in December 1983, features a stunning Arthur Hills golf course and is recognized as an Audubon Cooperative Sanctuary for its commitment to environmental quality by meeting required standards for protecting the environment, conserving natural resources, and preserving wildlife habitats.
